

Foreword We cannot stress too often the importance of getting your personal affairs in order. This process is important for those who often find themselves living away from family and friends. Throughout your life, you have tried to protect your loved ones and now you have a chance to help them at a time when they will need that help the most. Taking the time to plan now and record information for your loved ones will be the most unselfish gifts of love you can give. What My Family Should Know Although many of us are efficient in our daily lives and keep meticulous records in our professions, most of us leave inadequate and incomplete records of our economic and personal affairs when we die. When and how your benefits will be paid and how your estate will be settled are many questions that must be answered. This guide has been compiled to help you record the necessary facts for your family, your attorney and your executor. We suggest you complete this record and store it in a safe place so it will be available for possible revisions by you and later use by your family. It is not recommended that you keep this guide in your safety deposit box since most are sealed after death.

TRUSTS AND POWERS OF ATTORNEY

An attorney can best advise you if you need to execute a Will. While it is possible to do Wills using various software packages, it is not advisable to do so without having it reviewed by an attorney. Even copying an old Will could be a problem, if you have changed your home of record or have any changes in your family or your assets. You should also rely on your attorney to advise you regarding a power of attorney. While many can be done without the use of an attorney, again the money is well spent if it ensures you and your family that your affairs are in order.
